CLCON No.36 of 2001

Hon'ble V.K. Bist, J.

Mr Ravi Babulkar, Advocate present for the applicant.

Mr H.M. Raturi, Standing Counsel present for respondent no.1.

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

Learned counsel for the applicant submitted that in compliance of this Court's order dated 11.11.2010 the respondents have permitted the applicant to join the post and applicant has joined the post on 27.11.2010. But the applicant neither has been paid arrears of salary nor is being paid regular monthly salary.

Learned Standing Counsel filed counter affidavit in which he has submitted that against the order dated 11.11.2010 the State Government has preferred Special Leave Petition before the Supreme Court which is pending for hearing/admission. Learned Standing Counsel could not point out whether said Special Leave Petition has been admitted or not. But he requested for adjournment. Therefore, the case is adjourned for two weeks enabling the counsel for respondent no.1 to file status of the Special Leave Petition before the Supreme Court.

Needless to say that if Special Leave Petition is not admitted and interim order is not granted by the Supreme Court, the respondents are bound to comply the order passed by this Court.

List this contempt petition on 12.05.2011 in daily cause list.

(V.K. Bist, J.)
26.04.2011

Arti